

Welcome!

EFS in Östersund, Örnsköldsvik and Sundsvall

EFS is an abbreviation for Evangeliska Fosterlands-Stiftelsen (Swedish Evangelical Mission), the direct translation of EFS is: the Evangelical Motherland-Foundation. EFS is an independent missionary organization within the Swedish church. EFS in this district (in which the biggest cities are Östersund, Örnsköldsvik and Sundsvall) is one of the seven independent districts within EFS in Sweden. The district covers the same area as Härnösands foundation does (the Härnösands foundation is a foundation within the Swedish church that is located a bit north of the middle of Sweden) and all EFS-associations and EFS-groups are connected to EFS in this district. Within our district there are 56 associations and in the entire country there are a total of 391 associations.
